Dear Parents/Carers

It has come to our attention that a Facebook page exists which posts your status and photos when you 'tag' yourself as being at St Brendan's Catholic School. Please be aware that this page is not managed by the school and when you tag your location at St Brendan's Catholic School, your photos may be visible to the public.

We remind you that if you place photos or videos of your children on Facebook, there are to be no other students, teachers or parents visible. Please note that this includes students, teachers and parents who may be in the background of the photo or video.

Kind regards
St Brendan's
